

Driver Checklist For Handling Accidents

- Call the police to make an accident report
- Be polite but never admit fault or apologize to anyone
- Don't move the vehicles until told to do so by the police (unless you're in a dangerous spot on the road)
- Get the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all drivers, passengers and witnesses
- Exchange insurance information with the other driver(s)
- Take pictures of the scene, damage to the vehicles and any markings on the road (i.e., skid marks)
- Don't exit your car if you're in a dangerous or high-traffic area

If you or your passengers are injured:

- Call an ambulance, if necessary
- Tell the police you are hurt
- Seek medical treatment immediately
- Be specific when describing your injury to medical providers
- Tell medical providers the exact mechanism of your injury
